A MESSAGE FROM DIRECTORS

- The organization and its employees must, at all time, comply with all applicable rules and regulations. The organization will not condone the activities of employees who achieve results through violation of the law or by unethical business dealings. This includes any payments for illegal acts, indirect contributions, rebates and bribery. The organization doesn't permit any activity that fails to stand the closest possible public scrutiny.
- All business conduct should be well above the minimum standards required by law. Accordingly, employees must ensure that their actions cannot be interpreted as being, in any way, in contravention of the laws and regulations governing the Organization's operations.
- Employees uncertain about the application or interpretation of any legal requirements should refer the matter to their supervisor, who, if necessary, should seek appropriate legal advice.

Thank you!
